Petra,

I can't do a 30 day extension, but I can give you another two weeks. In my experience, that should be enough to let you find local counsel – and for whatever it's worth, Tim (who knows the area) concurs.

All the best,

Akiva M. Cohen

Akiva,

Our response date is currently September 15, but we have not been able to secure local counsel as necessary to get admitted pro hac vice. Could we please have one more 30 day extension?

Thanks,

Petra

Hi Akiva,

I am back from vacation and checking in with you regarding this case. My recollection from our conversation was that you were going to talk to your client and then respond or talk to me further about [REDACTED]

In the meantime, as our deadline to respond is again fast approaching, could we extend the deadline to September 15?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Petra

Akiva,

Thank you for discussing this case with me this afternoon. This will confirm that you have graciously extended the time to respond to the First Amended Complaint up to and including August 15, 2022.

My contact details are below, and I have cc'd my co-counsel, Brian Getz.

As we discussed, I will be out of the country from July 24 to August 3. I look forward to hearing from you to discuss the direction of this case, either before or after that time, after you have had a chance to talk further with your client.

Thank you for your courtesy, and I look forward to working with you on this matter.
